Let's Pray: For Gentleness Philippians 4:5; Mark 5:24-34

The original Greek word used here for "gentleness" describes an attitude of reasonableness, consideration, and fairness. It means looking beyond the strict letter of the law to show mercy and charity. It is the opposite of being contentious, rigid, demanding, or harsh. This gentleness is not weakness. It is a controlled strength and willingness to yield our rights for the sake of peace. Back then, secular Greeks considered this 'gentleness' to be the pinnacle of civilised behaviour, while Paul elevates it as a vital fruit of a life secure in Christ.

Let your gentleness be evident to all. [Philippians 4:5]

24 ... A large crowd followed and pressed around him. 25 And a woman was there who had been subject to bleeding for twelve years. 26 She had suffered a great deal under the care of many doctors and had spent all she had, yet instead of getting better she grew worse. 27 When she heard about Jesus, she came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, 28 because she thought, "If I just touch his clothes, I will be healed." 29 Immediately her bleeding stopped, and she felt in her body that she was freed from her suffering. 30 At once Jesus realised that power had gone out from him. He turned around in the crowd and asked, "Who touched my clothes?" 31 "You see the people crowding against you," his disciples answered, "and yet you can ask, 'Who touched me?' " 32 But Jesus kept looking around to see who had done it. 33 Then the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came, and fell at his feet and, trembling with fear, told him the whole truth. 34 He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has healed you. Go in peace and be freed from your suffering." [Mark 5:24-34]

Let's Pray: For Peace Philippians 4: 6-7

The Apostle Paul wrote these words from a Roman prison, where he was chained to a guard and facing a potential death sentence. The church in Philippi was also under immense pressure. They faced fierce outside persecution and internal conflict between key leaders. They were anxious about their safety and Paul's looming execution. Paul encourages them to respond to their anxiety with prayer, confident that as they do, God will replace their understandable human anxiety, with his peace that surpasses our understanding. This peace is not the absence of trouble but comes from the presence of God.

6 Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. 7 And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Let's Pray: For Opportunities Colossians 4:2-6

This passage bridges the gap between our inward faith and outward witness. It encourages us to devote ourselves to prayer with an alert, and thankful heart. When we ground ourselves in God, our daily lives naturally overflow into how we treat others. Paul urges us to walk in wisdom toward those around us, making the most of every opportunity. Even our everyday conversations should be gracious and "seasoned with salt" so that our words should encourage, bring healing, and reflect the love of Christ. How can our daily lives reflect the love of Christ to those who don't yet know him as their Lord and Saviour?

2 Devote yourselves to prayer, being watchful and thankful. 3 And pray for us, too, that God may open a door for our message, so that we may proclaim the mystery of Christ, for which I am in chains. 4 Pray that I may proclaim it clearly, as I should. 5 Be wise in the way you act toward outsiders; make the most of every opportunity. 6 Let your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone.

Let's Pray and Never Give Up Luke 18:1-8

In Luke 18:1–8, the Parable of the Persistent Widow, Jesus teaches His followers to pray continually and never lose heart. He contrasts an unjust and indifferent judge with our loving and faithful God, reminding us that if even an unrighteous judge eventually responds to persistence, how much more will our heavenly Father hear and answer the cries of His children.

Prayer is not a passive activity. It is an active expression of faith that seeks God's presence, trusts His timing, and pursues His will. Like the persistent widow, we are called to persevere in prayer.

The Parable of the Persistent Widow (NIV)

18 Then Jesus told his disciples a parable to show them that they should always pray and not give up. ² He said: "In a certain town there was a judge who neither feared God nor cared what people thought. ³ And there was a widow in that town who kept coming to him with the plea, 'Grant me justice against my adversary.

⁴ "For some time he refused. But finally, he said to himself, 'Even though I don't fear God or care what people think, ⁵ yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will see that she gets justice, so that she won't eventually come and attack me!"

⁶ And the Lord said, "Listen to what the unjust judge says. ⁷ And will not God bring about justice for his chosen ones, who cry out to him day and night? Will he keep putting them off? ⁸ I tell you, he will see that they get justice, and quickly. However, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on the earth?"

Let's Pray: Keep our Focus on God 2 Chronicles 20: 3-15

When God's people face overwhelming circumstances, prayer begins by focusing on who God is, standing on His promises, and trusting that the battle belongs to Him. Jehoshaphat teaches us one of the greatest lessons on prayer found anywhere in Scripture. When confronted by an overwhelming coalition of Moabites, Ammonites, and Meunites, he proclaimed a national fast and sought God. God assured them that "the battle is not yours, but God's". Jehoshaphat was afraid and resolved to seek the LORD!

2 Chronicles 20:3 (NLT)

³ Jehoshaphat was terrified by this news and begged the LORD for guidance. He also ordered everyone in Judah to begin fasting.

¹² O our God, won't you stop them? We are powerless against this mighty army that is about to attack us. We do not know what to do, but we are looking to you for help."

¹⁵ He said, "Listen, all you people of Judah and Jerusalem! Listen, King Jehoshaphat! This is what the LORD says: Do not be afraid! Don't be discouraged by this mighty army, for the battle is not yours, but God's.
